

WHAT HAPPENED TO TRUSTS IN THREE LARGE CITIES

WHAT HAPPENED IN TOLEDO.

TOLEDO, O., June 25.—Five members of the Toledo Ice Trust are in the County Jail awaiting commitment to the workhouse for violating the Anti-Trust law. These men conspired to raise the price of ice 100 per cent. this summer. Instead of profiting by their conspiracy they are sentenced to serve one year and pay a fine of $5,000. The convicted men are Joseph A. Miller, of the Toledo Ice and Coal Company; R. C. Lemmon and R. A. Board, of the Hygeia Ice Company; Peter H. Watters, of the Michigan Lake Ice Company, and Henry P. Brening, of the Baw Beese Lake Ice Company. Lyman Wachenheimer, the vigorous prosecuting attorney, is responsible for sending the trust members to prison.

WHAT HAPPENED IN ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 25.—The Plumbing Trust was dealt a knock-out blow yesterday when Judge Ryan ruled that a customer need not be forced to pay a member of the trust. This ruling was made under the Missouri law, which makes debts held by combinations in constraint of trade invalid. He found that the Cahill-Swift Co. was a member of a combination of plumbers and could not collect $240.83 from a former customer, J. E. Walsh, an independent plumber, who was out of from service.

WHAT HAPPENED IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK—The trusts did business in the same old way.

KEPT PREMIUM FOR INSURANCE

Marshall M. Finch Overlooked
the Fact that He Had Left Company.

Because he pocketed premiums after he left the employ of the New York Life Insurance Company, Marshall M. Finch, of No. 25 West One Hundred and Forty-second street, was today held by Magistrate Steinhilber in the Harlem Court in $1,000 bail for trial. The complainant was Policeman John G. Taylor, of the Health Department. Taylor said that two years ago he took out a policy at the solicitation of Finch, who was then an agent. On June 2, this year, the second payment fell due and Finch called. It was for $34, but Finch gave the policeman a rebate of 25 per cent. Later, Taylor was notified by the company that if he didn't pay the premium his policy would lapse. He investigated and found that Finch left the New York Life last November and did not turn over his collection. Taylor visited Finch at his home and the latter threatened to throw him downstairs. The policeman obtained a warrant. Policeman Allen served it, and in court Finch admitted having collected the money.

Miller Gets Broken Nose.
Julius Miller, of No. 1066 Pacific street, Brooklyn, was held up and assaulted by three unknown men early to-day at Classon and Atlantic avenues. The sound of oncoming footsteps caused the men to take to the run. Miller's nose was broken in the assault.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—STATEN ISLAND. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—STATEN ISLAND. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—STATEN ISLAND. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—STATEN ISLAND.

A $1,000,000 NAME. SOUTH NEW YORK, Formerly Staten Island.

TWO Bronx real estate speculators were returning from South New York last Saturday; one was heard to say: "That name is worth a million dollars to Staten Island. The thing for us to do is to buy near Wood, Harmon & Co., then we won't have to advertise." On every side you hear the same expression of delight. A new era has set in. The King is dead; long live the King. Staten Island has long been dead; long live South New York.

This same beautiful land, now covered with buyers, has lain unregarded for six years under the noses of New Yorkers, while New York City was pouring out her millions in docks, ferries and other improvements, and while factories from the ends of America were seeking locations along her shores.

The fact is, while New Yorkers are not stupid, the stupidest persons in the world live on Manhattan Island. The Manhattanite won't realize that, because of tunnels and transportation developments, New York City is coming under the same real estate law that governs the growth of all great cities. Cities never grow upward if they can grow outward. He is not to be blamed for his ignorance of the laws which he has never had a chance to study. He only needs a leader and he has one right here. When, at the sound of some clarion note like the call to South New York, he begins to buy—he buys so fast and so heavily that everything doubles in a night. He did it in Brooklyn, though we were on the ground before him; he is doing it in Staten Island to-day, while we have 1,500 acres of the best of it for you at half the cost which he is obliged to pay. This land will be sold while it lasts at prices no other real estate operator can meet. The next boom will be in South New York, formerly Staten Island. You will buy. It is merely a question whether you get the first choice or the 5,000th. We advise you to buy right now. Be the early bird and get the worm. Don't wait and have to chase the bird.

WOOD, HARMON & CO.

$1,000 in Rewards
for a Few Minutes of Somebody's Time.

A unique contest, open to all, will be begun with the opening of Additions Nos. 1 and 2, South New York. Whether you buy yourself or not, you can enter this contest—you may win the money. It is certainly worth your while to look into this. Details on request.

SOUTH
NEW YORK

Formerly Staten Island.
$10 Secures Any Lot.
Monthly Payments $5 and Upward.

Opening Day is JULY 2.

But don't you wait; you go to-day if possible—to-morrow anyhow. Salesmen are on the property every day from 9 A. M. to dark.
First choice is always best.

Most Surprising Offer Ever Made
By a Real Estate Firm.

A sum approximating $50,000 will be actually given away to those who build on Additions Nos. 1 and 2, or for whom we build. If only one house is built, that one owner will get the $50,000; if fifty houses are built, each one will get approximately $1,200.

How to Get to South New York.

Take any Municipal Staten Island Ferryboat. Look for trolley cars marked "SOUTH NEW YORK." Our representatives wear yellow badges, and will refund your carfare on application. Go now, go early.
